Was it that day at Cascade Springs? Was it that night we whirled around the B.Y.U. Ballroom floor, or was it the fact that we could be ourselves with each other that made us realize we were more than just friends?

All of the above! We became husband and wife over the altar in the Provo Temple in the early Spring of 1975, and eight years and five children later, we were glad we did!

John Vincent Barry, a Southern Calif. R.M., tennis player, jogger, golfer, geneology buff, raised in Orem, Utah, graduated from B.Y.U. with a teaching degree in 1976. Since then, he's taught high school in Twin Falls, Idaho, been a very successful Milkman in Provo, Orem, and Springville, Utah, and managed a Mall in Casa Grande, Arizona. His present work is managing the Homestead". It keeps life interesting.

Brenda is happy being a housewife, mother, and medical assistant, and enjoys making crafty things for her home, and shopping for anything but groceries.

Gregory John, 7½, is happy when he's creating and showing responsibility of being the oldest of the five children. He loves playing baseball, riding bikes, or teasing Adam.

Brian Vincent, 6½, is our peacemaker and an easy going lover of sports and his Daddy. He spends every penny he earns the minute he gets it or before. (takes after his Mom)

Adam Wesley, 4, is our muscle man, and likes to show off his strength by climbing light poles or any other vertical thing in no time at all.

Richard Elmer, is an extraordinarily happy child of 2, who laughs alot and loves tuna fish and Mindy.

Mindy Sue, 18 months, is a demure, tiny girl who has Daddy and brothers wrapped around her tiny fingers. She loves to go "bye bye" and wear dresses.

We've always been drawn to the beauty and serenity of the Heber Valley and feel a spirit of a friendship and kindness now that we are here.
